THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST

BACKGROUND The Revelation (also called simply "Revelation"), the concluding book of the Scriptures, unfolds the great events bringing history to consummation, including the revelation of Jesus Christ at His second advent. THEMES OF THE REVELATION Central Theme: Jesus Christ is revealed in glory 1. Christ is seen in relationship to time as He "who is and who was and who is to come" 1:4. 2. Christ is related to the Church 1:9-3:22 the tribulation 4:1-19:21 the millennial Kingdom 20:1-10 and the eternal state 20:11 - 22:21 3. Christ is presented as the Ruler of the kings of the earth 1:5 the Bridegroom and Head of the Church 2:1-3:22; 19:7-9 the Lion of the tribe of Judah 5:5 the Lamb that was slain 5:6.12, etc. the High Priest 8:3-6 and the King and Judge 19:11 - 20:15 DIVISIONS OF REVELATION Things past: "the things which you have seen," that is, the Patmos vision 1:1-20 I. Things present: "the things which are," that is, the existing Churches 2:1 - 3:22 III. Things future: "the things which will take place after this," that is, events after the Church Age ends 4:1 - 22:5 This third major division of Revelation (4:1 - 22:21) is characterized by series of sevens: 7 Seals 7 Trumpets 8:2 - 11:19 7 Bowls 15:1 - 16:21 7 Dooms 17:1 - 20:15 7 New Things 21:1 - 22:21 PARANTHETICAL PASSAGES Important passages which are parenthetical, supplemental or corrective: the Jewish remnant and the tribulation Saints 7:1-17 the angel, the little book and the two witnesses 10:1 - 11:14 the Lamb, the remnant and the proclamation of the everlasting Gospel 14:1-13 the gathering of the kings of the earth in preparation for Armageddon 16:13-16 and the 4 alleluias in heaven 19:1-6 The Main Purpose is to provide the setting for the revelation of Jesus Christ. Principal attention is given to: the time of the tribulation cp.4 – 19 (which is believed to coincide with Daniel's seventieth week Dan. 9:24-27); the Great Tribulation, the latter half of that "week"; the Climax of the book begins with the revelation of the Lord Jesus Christ in chapter 19. Much that is now obscure will become clear to those for whom it was written, as the time approaches: 1 Peter 1:12; 2 Peter 1:20-21 Recalling that all human knowledge is imperfect (1 Cor.13:9), the authors or the editors, present their personal view in relation to nis Panoramic View of the Relevation was compiled by W. and J.
